Messieurs EDES & GILL,

Please to insert the following Extract from Swift's Gulliver's Travels, for the Amusement of your Readers:—— Gulliver (relating his Conversation with the Houyhnhm his Master) says,

"I assured his Honor that LAW was a Science in which I had not much conversed, further than by employing Advocates in vain, upon some Injustices that had been done me, however I would give him all the Satisfaction I was able."

"I said there was a Society of Men among us bred up from their Youth in the Art of proving, by Words multiplied for the Purpose, that White is black, and Black is white, according as they are paid. To this Society all the rest of the People are Slaves. For Example, if my Neighbour hath a Mind to my Cow, he hires a Lawyer to prove that he ought to have my Cow from me. I must then hire another to defend my Right, for it is against all Rules of Law, that any Man should be allow'd to speak for himself. Now in this Case I who am the right Owner lie under two great Disadvantages. First, my Lawyer, being practised almost from his Cradle in defending Falsehood, is quite out of his Element, when he would be an Advocate for Justice, which is an unnatural Office, he always attempts with great awkwardness, if not with ill Will. The second Disadvantage is, that my Lawyer must proceed with great Caution, or else he will be reprimanded by the Judges, and abhorred by his Brethren as one that would lessen the Practice of the Law. And therefore I have but two Methods to preserve my Cow. The first is to gain over my Adversary's Lawyer with a double Fee, who will then betray his Client by insinuating that he hath Justice on his Side. The second way is, for my Lawyer to make my Cause appear as unjust as he can, by allowing the Cow to belong to my adversary: And this, if it be well managed, will certainly bespeak the Favor of the Bench. Now your Honor is to know, that these Judges are Persons appointed to decide all Controversies of Property, as well as for the Trial of Criminals; and picked out from the most dexterous Lawyers who are grown old in Study, and having been biassed all their Lives against Truth & Equity, lie under such a fatal Necessity of favouring Fraud, Perjury and Oppression, that I have known some of them refuse a large Bribe from the Side where Justice lay, rather than injure the Faculty, by doing any Thing unbecoming their Nature or their Office.—It is a Maxim among these Lawyers, that whatever hath been done before, may legally be done again, and therefore they take special Care to record all the Decisions formerly made against common Justice, and the general Reason of Mankind. These under the Name of Precedents, they produce as authorities to justify the most iniquitous opinion, and the Judges never fail of directing accordingly."

"In pleading, they studiously avoid entering into the Merits of the Cause, but are loud, violent, and tedious in dwelling upon all Circumstances which are not to the Purpose. For Instance in the Case already mentioned; they never desire to know what Claim or Title my Adversary hath to my Cow, but whether the Cow were red or black; her Horns long or short, whether the Field I graze her in be round or square; whether she was milked at home or abroad; what Diseases she is subject to, and the like; after which they consult Precedents, adjourn the Cause from Time to Time, and in ten, twenty or thirty Years come to an Issue.——It is known to be observed that this Society hath a peculiar Cant & Jargon of their own, that no other Mortal can understand, and wherein all their Laws are written, which they take special Care to multiply; whereby they have wholly confounded the very Essence of Truth and Falsehood, of Right and Wrong: So that it will take thirty Years to decide, whether the Field left me by my Ancestors for six Generations belongs to me or to a Stranger three Hundred Miles off."

"In the Trial of Persons accused for Crimes against the State, the Method is much more short and commendable; the Judge first sends to found the Disposition of those in Power, after which he can easily bring or save a Criminal, strictly preserving all the due Forms of LAW."

Messieurs EDES & GILL,

IN your Paper of February 3, 1772, there is an Address "to the Free Electors of the Massachusetts-Bay," in which is "Recommended the Practice of Instructing our Representatives to protest strongly against, or utterly to REFUSE allegiance to a Governor paid otherwise than by their own free Gift." Mutius Scævola (in the Spy) in his Reasonings concludes that he who has not stipulated with the People for his Pay, is in Fact no Governor, but an Usurper, &c. In our Charter it is granted, That when and as often as the Governor, and Lieutenant or Deputy Governor——for the Time being, shall happen to die, or be absent from our Province——Then it is granted unto the Council or Assistant, for the Time being, or the major Part of them, full Power and Authority to do and execute all and every such Acts, Matters and Things which the said Governor, &c. for the Time being might or could lawfully do or execute, if they or either of them were personally present.

Now if our Country Towns should instruct our Representatives to proceed in the same Manner, and the Court in Fact should protest, as if we had no Governor, &c. having none according to the Reasoning of Mutius Scævola, what would be the Consequence? Would not some body who says he has no Authority over the King's Troops, make it appear that he had, and commit such, who should use their Liberty, to the Tower, i. e. Castle William? Or would not their very Being be annihilated? Human Nature shudders at the Thought of Annihilation, and so might the political Nature.——We can by no Means believe that the failing of a small Stick in the Building would utterly cause the House to tumble down, tho' it might weaken it.——And with what Acquaintance I have had with Mankind, I had rather go to inhabit an Island with 10,000 Men without any Law, besides that of Nature, than with an arbitrary Despot, whose Will was to be Law!—For an arbitrary despotic Government on Earth, resembles one of the worst ideas I have of Hell, where there is no Sacrifice for Sin, but a fearful looking for of more judgment and hot indignation!

Messieurs Printers, There are many Questions we should be glad to ask, by reason of doubts arising in our minds, because we up in the country do not fully know wherein our great strength lies; and as we have in your said Paper Encouragement of free Access to the Press of any of the Printers in Boston, and of Answers to all the Doubts arising in our Minds, so if you will enlighten our Understandings, encourage our Hearts, and strengthen our Hands in the Cause of Liberty, it will be gratefully accepted. We have seven Thousand that have not bowed the Knee to Baal, nor will they fall down and worship the Beast, nor will they give Heed to all lying Words of an Usurper, nor perjured Traitor, but will walk in the good old way, & find rest. The People in the Country are veterans in the cause of Liberty, except one or two in a Town, such as the infamous Importers, Commissioners, and a few Roman Catholicks. In the Town where I sometimes reside, there is not more than two suspected, one an Importer, a Justice——but rarely does Business, except for an Indian Family, which he usually treats at the Inn does the Jack-Call, and all the Rest as the Fox would the Poultry if he had Power. The other an old Catholick Priest, neither of which have great Capacities——The Man who most probably will be chosen is a down-right honest Man, a Man who would not do a bad Action for the Prowess or Flatteries of the Great, and would gladly receive and assiduously pursue such Instructions as should be for the Peace and Prosperity of his Constituents in particular, and the Province in general.

VULCAN.

Petersham, February 10, 1772.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16.

We hear, that three of the prisoners confined in the goal of this city, died during the last week, and the Coroner's Inquest have found that they perished through want of necessaries. Think of this, ye who dissipate the bounty of heaven in idle amusements——who waste more money in one night's debauch, than would support a little family for a week! Ye who live in affluence, and who are strangers to the calamities of hunger and cold—Oh! forget not to relieve your unhappy fellow creatures from the anguish of them both. These poor sufferers, like Lazarus of old, ask for nothing but the "Crumbs which fall from your tables." The very refuse of your kitchens, beds, and wearing apparel, would be received by them with joy and thankfulness. We hope the humane part of the inhabitants of this city will guard for the future against accidents of the like nature, and thus wipe off the dishonour which the above melancholy catastrophe has done not only to Christianity but to Humanity. The inclemency of the present season still calls upon the public to afford relief to numbers who are now under confinement, and in great distress in our goal.

SALEM, March 24.

Last Saturday was taken up on Nahant Beech, in Lynn, the Wreck of a two-mast Fishing-Boat, Ipswich built; it was drove about half over the Beech, and lay across the Road. On the fore Part of the Wreck there appeared, wrote with Chalk, quite legible, these Words,—Aaron Craft is my Name.—From the Place where the Boat was drove ashore, were seen the Tracks of three Men, appearing as tho' they walked together for about 20 or 30 Rods, when one of them (whose Body was taken up last Sunday) it is thought, hit his Foot against a Stone, and fell with his Face on a large flat Rock, where he died: This appears probable from the Position in which he was found, laying on his Face with his two Hands under him, and his Nose flatted on the Rock. The other two were traced about 20 Rods further, reaching to the opposite Side or End of Nahant, where the Tracks were lost for Want of Snow; and both these Persons, it is beyond all Doubt, also perished, as they have not been heard of. It is probable their Bodies are (as that of the Person found was nearly) covered with Snow; or, if they happened to be near the Water, the Tide may have washed them away. The Person found was a likely young Man, well dressed for a Fisherman, and had on new Boots. There were 5 or 6 Pair of other Boots also taken up, which appeared to be new. The wreck was taken up by Mr. Nehemiah Breed, and the Boots by different Persons. There was a quantity of fresh caught Fish in the Wreck. There is no Account where the Boat was from; but it is conjectured she came from Cape-Ann.

Last Saturday Morning, just at Break of Day, a Dwelling-House in Danvers, belonging to Mr. Daniel Jacobs, and which was improved by two Families, his own and that of his Son's, was discovered to be on Fire, and in a very short Time was entirely consumed, with almost every Thing of Value which it contained, the two Families having but just about Time to save themselves from the Flames. The Building was large, and contained, besides the Furniture, Provisions, &c. 3000 lb. of Cocoa, and several 100lb. of Chocolate, which were nearly or quite all destroyed.—The Loss, at a moderate Computation, is said to amount to Five Hundred Pounds, lawful Money. How the Fire began is not known.

POT-ASH.

The following is humbly submitted to the dispassionate attention of the Pot-Ash Manufacturers, from a sincere desire to promote their real good.

AS the season for making Pot-Ash is now advancing, this is to inform all manufacturers in that branch of business, so very advantageous to the trading Interest of North-America, that a person in Boston has, by many years close application, found out a method to make Pot-Ash greatly to be prefered to the method now practiced upon. By practicing on this plan the manufacturers will most assuredly find their account in it, by making and procuring much more salts from the same quantity of wood-ashes than in the usual method, it frees the Pot-Ash in a great measure from that filth and foreign matter so detrimental to the consumer, also, it brings the quality of Pot-Ash nearly to one standard of goodness, so that the merchant nor the manufacturer may not be subjected to the loss they frequently are by means of three or four different prices of Pot-Ash in England, according to their different degrees of goodness, but on the contrary, by this method, it is supposed, there will be but one price to it, it being all near the same standard, as is the case with that article from Russia, and upon the whole, the above plan will produce considerably more and better Pot-Ash than any yet sent from America. This being the case, it is absolutely necessary that the manufacturers of Pot-Ash should avail themselves of those improvements, by which means, they will rise superior in that article to any other country. For further particulars enquire of the Printers.

TO THE FREE ELECTORS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS-BAY. vid. pa. 48.

Friendsand Brethren in one common Cause,

FROM the earliest Days of the Stamp Act, an Obsequiousness to the Plan of British parliamentary Tyranny over us discovered itself in our Commanders in Chief.

Though they were, till lately, connected with us in the Article of Salary, yet doubtless they were very early inspired with the Hopes of being exalted into Independency, as soon as ever the CHEST of Extortion shou'd become adequate to the Scheme. When that Period at length arrived, I did not indeed look for any Increase of the Obsequiousness which I have mention'd, the Distance between that and Servility having been only an imaginary Surface; but, I own, I expected to see all the natural evil Consequences of Despotism executed without the least Disguise, and with a considerable Portion of self justified Revenge. I was mistaken in my Man, as the Phrase is. Complimentary FORM is to be kept up.

The Destruction of our Election-Ceremony would be so alarming to every Citizen, even of the lowest Capacity, that such a Thing will not probably be soon attempted; but a Destruction of the essential Value of the representative Body is so necessary, in a Design to subvert our Liberties, that any Man is warranted to believe it Part of the Politicks of the present Day. Beware therefore of being cheated with EMPTY FORMS.

The Business of the March Town Meetings being so far advanced that INSTRUCTIONS to the present Representatives could not easily be inserted as a Part, lo! the Privy-Printer tells the Public that "His Excellency the Governor (meaning I suppose the honorable Thomas Huchinson,) intends to meet the Great and General Court or Assembly of this Province at the Time to which it now stands prorogued, viz. on Wednesday the 8th of April next." So that, my Friends and Brethren, if no fresh Mandate happens to arrive, or no old one is found to retain Vigour enough to frustrate present Intentions, your Representatives will meet and be met within Ten Days. Perhaps you never had more just Room to hope for a virtuous, manly, patriotic Conduct than in the Gentlemen of your last Choice. Strengthen them, however, more and more, daily, by your Conversation. They will doubtless seize the coming short Opportunity to show their Resentment of the late Attempt to change our Constitution. This they will do both from a Principle of Conscience, and that they may give you an Opportunity as Individuals of discovering to those, who would tyrannize over us, your particular Sentiments upon this Subject: For by no Way can you so evidently discover them, as by your approving Suffrages, in the RE-ELECTION of Those who have manifested a vigorous Patriotism.

O AN ELECTOR, 1772.

Last Saturday arrived here the Captains Calef and Mirick from London, by whom we have the public Papers to the 4th of February, from which we have extracted the following Articles of Intelligence, viz.

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

WESTMINSTER, January 21.

THIS Day his Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from his Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers: The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT gives Me much Satisfaction, that nothing in the Situation of Our Affairs, either Foreign or Domestick, has obliged Me to require your Attendance earlier than might have been consistent with your private Convenience; and that now you are met together, you will find yourselves at Liberty to give your whole Attention to the Establishment of wise and useful Regulations of Law, and to the Extension of our Commercial Advantages.

The Performance of the Engagement of the King of Spain, in the Restitution of Port Egmont and Falkland's Island, and the repeated Assurances I have received of the pacifick Disposition of that Court, as well as of other Powers, promise to My Subjects the Continuance of Peace; and We may, with the greater Confidence, hope, that We shall not be disturbed in the Enjoyment of this Blessing, as there is no Reason to apprehend that We shall become involved in the Troubles which still unhappily prevail in one Part of Europe.

The Danger of the farther Spreading of the infectious Sickness in Europe is, I trust, very much abated. But I must recommend it to you not to suffer our Happiness, in having been hitherto preserved from so dreadful a Calamity, to lessen your Vigilance in the Use of every reasonable Precaution for our Safety.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the Estimates for the Service of the current Year to be laid before you. I make no Doubt but you will see the Propriety of maintaining a respectable Establishment of My Naval Forces: I am pleased, however, to find, that I shall be under no Necessity of asking of you, at this Time, any extraordinary Aid.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Concerns of this Country are so various and extensive, as to require the most vigilant and active Attention; and some of them as well from Remoteness of Place, as from other Circumstances, are so peculiarly liable to Abuses, and exposed to Danger, that the Interposition of the Legislature for their Protection may become necessary. If in any such Instances, either for supplying Defects, or remedying Abuses, you shall find it requisite to provide any new Laws, you may depend upon My ready Concurrence in whatever may best contribute to the Attainment of those salutary Ends.

LONDON.

Jan. 17. On Wednesday Count de Guignes had audience of his Majesty at St. James's, and delivered his credentials. vid pa. 589 Vol. 3—pa. 12.

Jan. 18 We are told, it is a fixed point that the affairs of America shall be taken under consideration soon after the meeting of Parliament.

The Irish Parliament is adjourned to the 4th of Feb.

A commission is preparing to pass the Great Seal, for appointing a new Board of Trade and Plantations.

Jan 20. It is said that Governor Bernard (having put Lord Hillsborough into the Hands of Mr. Hutchinson, the present Governor of New-England) is now entirely done with the guidance of all kind of American affairs; and that his Lordship, for past services, has exerted his utmost secret interest to get his Governor to the Board of Trade, in the room of the late Mr. Fitzherbert, but that his Lordship's utmost and final efforts have not been CROWNED with success.

Jan. 21. We hear that Lord Hillsborough, supported by the Premier, proposes to bring in a bill for the repeal of the tea duty in America. *

We are credibly informed, that Colonel Lutterell intends getting up in the House of Commons this day, and reading his recantation. We are told that he means to declare, that he is not the legal representative of the county of Middlesex; that he was imposed upon by Administration, and that the whole kingdom has been imposed upon, by their seating him there as one of the representatives of the county of Middlesex, in direct contradiction to the sense of the electors; that he is convinced of his error, and is therefore determined no longer to hold what he has now no doubt belongs to another, and then to quit the House. Should the Colonel pursue such conduct, he must retrieve himself in the eye of the world.

Jan. 25. His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland attended his duty on Thursday in the House of Peers for the first Time this session.

No persons, since the first day of meeting, have been admitted into the galleries of the House of Commons, without an order from the Speaker.

Two Lords, not less distinguished for their tried integrity than high political knowledge, and who are of no particular party, are determined, it is said, to decline all attendance in parliament untill certain doors are set open.

Promoted.] John Gardner, Esq; to be Deputy-Paymaster of his Majesty's forces in North-America, in the room of Isaac Bevan, Esq; deceased.

Jan. 27. On Friday the Princess Dowager was done at five guineas, to receive one hundred, in case she died within ten days.

Advices have been received at St. James's from Gibraltar, that hostilities have commenced between the Spaniards and Moors at Oran & Centa; that several smart engagements have happened; and that it is like to terminate in an open rupture.

Jan. 28. It is certain, that the death of the Princess Dowager of Wales is now hourly expected. The Sacrament was administred to her Royal Highness last week, when she drank some of the wine, but her throat was so bad that she could not swallow the bread

Jan. 29. It is asserted, that a change will happen very soon in the most capital departments of Administration.

January 30. This Day are published,—REASONS against the intended Bill for laying some Restraints upon THE LIBERTY OF THE PRESS, wherein all the Arguments yet advanced by the Promoters of it are unanswerably answered.

The Ministry have proposed that 25,000 seamen shall be employed for the ensuing year.

By the death of the Earl of Northington, Ireland is eased of a pension of 4000l. per annum.

Jan. 31. On Wednesday just at the leves at St. James's was going to begin, an express arrived from a Northern Court, with an account that a revolution had happened there. The Q——n seems, had, for some time, been intriguing with her physician. Her growing power, and conduct, occasioned a general alarm, and dissatisfaction, among the citizens of C. (1) They suddenly rose, and surrounded the palace; and as suddenly possessed themselves of every apartment in it. The physician was instantly put into an iron cage. The Q. was made prisoner. And the K. they carried directly to the Senate; whose deliberations they were attending, when the express came away. Though the K. of D. is one of the most despotic Sovereigns in the world, yet he must submit to his people. He is now in their possession. When the express left C. conditions to the K. were preparing; which, as there is no material accusation against him, are said to be moderate. Only two of them are at present spoken of. These are, that he shall sign an instrument dissolving his marriage; and that the Q. shall be imprisoned in one of the castles for life. Upon the news of this event, the leves at St. James's was forbid.

The Messenger who brought the news from Denmark on Wednesday, was sent off the same night with dispatches for the above place.

On Tuesday night the Gentlemen of the Constitutional Society, held at the Half-Moon Tavern, Cheapside, voted the sum of 250l. (in part of 500l. before voted to be raised) to be paid immediately to Mr. William Bingley, for his noble and patriotic behavior in submitting to suffer two years imprisonment, rather than answer any interrogatories upon attachment, which he thought unconstitutional and illegal.—Mr. Weble was paid, on the 16th instant, the 100l. voted him last winter by the Gentlemen of the said Society. (3)

We hear, that the state of the Navy will be taken into consideration in the House of Commons this day.

Feb. 1. We hear that Lord Chatham intends to remain in Somersetshire till the month of March, and is doubtful whether he will come to the House of P. this season, unless something very material should occur which may require his presence.

It is a scandalous truth that Mr. Ardef if a Frenchman, is at this time Governor of Tilbury Fort.

Extract of a Letter from Alcona, Jan. 24.

"On the 17th instant her Majesty the Queen of Denmark, with the young Princess and Lady Moydan, under a guard of 30 dragoons were conducted to the fortress of Cronenburgh. The Counts Stuensee and Brand, the Counsellor Stuenser, General Gahler and his Lady, are likewise sent to prison; the Master of the Horse, Baron General Gude, Col. Falkenschield, Lieutenant General Hasselberg, the Privy-Counsellor Wildebrand, the State Secretary Zoega, Panning, and more, are arrested in their own houses, under strong guards. The papers belonging to the above-mentioned persons are sealed up, and Commissioners appointed to enquire into the affair. His Majesty gave all his orders relative to the above, after he came from the Ball, at one o'clock in the morning, which were directed to be immediately executed.

Our correspondent at Warsaw, of the 11th of January, gives us the following authentic and very important advice; namely, that a Turkish Prince is now at Petersburg, having in charge, to deliver the plan of pacification to her imperial Majesty; one article of which is, that the Grand Seignior consents to acknowledge his present Polish Majesty as King of Poland; and by a second article, the Ottoman Porte declares, that he will not, for the future interfere with the affairs of Poland. Their two articles having been very palatable to her Czarinish Majesty, an amnesty between the two Courts of Constantinople and Petersburg has taken place, which has been notified in form to the Court of Warsaw.

Feb. 2. The Minister in the course of the debate on the motion for augmenting the navy, assigned a reason for that measure, that the French have a considerable armament in the East-Indies. How far such a reason is consistent with the peaceable declarations contained in a late Speech, is left to our readers to determine.

We hear the following removes will be made in the Royal Navy.

John Montague, Esq; Rear Admiral of the Blue, to be Rear Admiral of the White.—Lord Edgecombe, Vice Admiral of the Blue, to be Vice Admiral of the White.—James Young, Esq; Vice Admiral of the White, to be Vice Admiral of the Red.—Thomas Pye, Esq; Vice Admiral of the Red, to be Admiral of the Blue.—His Grace the Duke of Bolton, and Sir Thomas Frankland, Admirals of the Blue, to be appointed Admirals of the White.

We are informed that Mr. Sheriff Wilkes is writing some remarks on the laws respecting the confinement of debtors, which are to be submitted to the consideration of parliament.

Feb. 4. A great Lady in Pall-Mall was worse last night than she has been since her illness; her physicians have only directed palliatives for some days past; and it is positively asserted, there is now no hopes of her recovery.

A correspondent informs us, that Col. Keith, the British minister at the Danish Court, has shewn the greatest spirit and good conduct during the late Revolution: It seems the Senate, in the first transport of their fury, had given orders for putting the Queen to immediate death: They had (without hearing her defence, and without any form of tryal) unanimously declared her guilty of adultery, and of poisoning her husband.—Upon which Mr. Keith instantly repaired to the Senate House, and solemnly protested against any act of violence being offered to the Queen; he in the strongest terms urged her innocence and the improbability of the accusations against her, and concluded with denouncing the vengeance of the British nation and the terrors of an English fleet against the Senate and People of Denmark, if any act of Violence and injustice was committed on a daughter of Britain, and the sister of the King his Sovereign.

That the Q—— of D——— for a considerable time has behaved exceedingly imprudent (even in public, and given loose to an unhappy passion for the Minister and Physician. Struensee, a German) may be depended on.—The conviction hath been too barefaced to escape the notice of the people; and the great preferment) heaped on this misfortunate and his family, thro' the Q——'s intercession with the K——g has made them watchful observers of his actions, which now too plainly are found villainous.——The well known access of a Prime Minister joined to the profession of a Physician, must have at any Court, will account for Struensee's opportunities for insinuating himself with the Q——, and imposing on the K——g intoxicating medicines to prevent suspicions of his actions, in which he too long has succeeded.

St. James's, Jan. 25. This day arrived Monsieur Koch; Secretary to his Serene Highness the Hereditary Prince of Hesse-Cassel, with the melancholy account of the death of her Royal and Most Serene Highness the Landgravine of Hesse-Cassel, his Majesty's aunt, who departed this life on the 24th instant, at Hanau, universally lamented.

Dublin, Jan. 28. Yesterday the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-council, in respect to the memory of the late Dr. Lucas, that great Merit, and behavior in Parliament for the city of Dublin, granted a pension of 50l. a year to his widow Mrs. Lucas, and his three youngest children, to commence from the 4th of last November, on which day he died.

BOSTON, March 30.

At a very full Town Meeting on Tuesday last by Adjournment, Mr. Oliver Wendell was chosen Selectsman by a very great Majority, and Mr. Zechariah Brigden, a Warden.

The Meeting, after an unanimous Vote to the Honorable John Hancock, Esq; as Moderator, was dissolved.

The story of hanging a boy at Liverpool in Nova-Scotia, which we copied from the Essex Gazette, is not true.

In Capt. Calef from London came Passengers Mr. James Bowdoin, jun. Son of the Hon. James Bowdoin, Esq; Mr. —— Loring, youngest Son of Commodore Loring, and Mr. Andrew Newell.

By Capt. Calef we have Advice that Mr. Andrew Hall, of this Town, Merchant, died in London of the small Pox, a Day or two before he came away.

We hear that the Captains Scott and Callahan were to sail from London for this Place in about a Week or ten Days after Capt. Calef.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated 16th January.

"You doubtless have heard that Mr. Temple has got a genteel Provision: It is Surveyor-General of the Customs in this Kingdom, under the Commissioners of the Customs in London, worth £700 per Ann. Salary, and from £.300 to £.500 per Ann. Emolument.—Whether the latter is so or not I cannot warrant, but the Appointment may be depended upon: It is quite a new Appointment——there are to be two only for the Kingdom."

The Justitia, Capt. Gillies is arrived in Rappahannock (in Maryland) from London in 40 Days, with 120 Convicts, among whom is JOHN EYRE, Esqr who, though worth upwards of 30,000l. sterling, was convicted of stealing eleven Quires of Paper, value 6s. sterling.

Captain Hervey, from Chester, arrived here last Friday. On the 24th Instant, spoke with the Ship Charlotte, Capt. Rogers, bound from Rhode Island to London, 15 Days out, who the Day before had his Mainmast struck by Lightning in three Places, and one Man, named William Ford, killed, and two others wounded; but the Vessel and Cargo not much damaged.

On Saturday last arrived here the Schooner Katy, William Cowell, Master, from Cadiz, after a tedious Passage of 12 Weeks, 7 of which he had been within Soundings, and had been greatly distressed by the want of Provisions; but on the 24th Instant, on George's Banks he was relieved, by meeting with the Brig Minerva, Capt. Jotham Blanchard, bound to the West-Indies, who very generously, and in a polite Manner, supplied him not only with Ships Provisions, but imparted to him of his Cabin Stores.

Saturday last died here, Mrs. Jane McFarland, Wife of Capt. John McFarland. We hear her Remains are to be interr'd on Wednesday next.
